GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. The Editorial address: Gerhard van den Heever, Department of New Testament, University of South Africa, P.O. Box 392, Pretoria, 0003, South Africa. E-mail: Religion&Theology@unisa.ac.za.
2. Books for review and reviews should be sent to the Book Reviews Editor: Gerrie F. Snyman, Department of Old Testament, University of South Africa, P.O. Box 392, Pretoria, 0003, South Africa.
3. Manuscripts must be submitted electronically via email to the following address: Religion&Theology@unisa.ac.za. Manuscripts must be submitted in MS Word format, but an ASCII file of the document should also be provided. All 'special effects' in the text such as bold, italics, and watermarks should have been removed. Use italics only where required by convention, for example, for the titles of books
4. The manuscript must be an original contribution, which has not been published previously, written in English, French or German. Authors must include a covering statement declaring that the manuscript is their own work and that all copyright permissions, etc. have been obtained. An abstract must also be provided at the beginning of the article. Photographs can be submitted as electronic files, slides or glossy prints. When supplied as electronic files, line drawings should have a minimum resolution of 600 d.p.i. [dots per inch]. Photographs should have a minimum resolution of 300 d.p.i. The file format should be .TIF(F), .JPG or .EPS; a printout should always be supplied. Coptic, Greek, or unvocalised Hebrew may be used in the text provided that fonts obtainable in the public domain (such as from Perseus/Silver Mountain or SBL) are used; if transliterated, and in the case of other foreign languages, these must be transliterated according to the guidelines provided in The SBL Handbook of Style: For Ancient Near Eastern, Biblical, and Early Christian Studies (Peabody, Mass.: Hendrickson, 1999) or in consultation with the relevant standard grammars and dictionaries.
5. The manuscript should include an abstract of not more than 100 words and 2–6 keywords.
6. Please number headings, but do not use more than two levels of headings.
7. Use footnotes.
8. For references in the text, follow the style as set out in The SBL Handbook of Style. Please avoid the use of ibid. or op. cit.; give full bibliographic details in the first occurrence of a reference, thereafter use short titles.
9. References to biblical documents, other classical authors and reference works must be made according to the style as set out in The SBL Handbook of Style or the other reference indexes listed in the SBL Handbook.
10. In order to avoid long delays in returning proofs, authors do not receive proofs from the copy-editor. The editorial committee reserves the right to exercise its discretion with regard to copy-editing.
11. Authors each receive three free copies of the issue in which their articles appeared.
